

First Japanese Cuisine restaurant to open in heart of Sandakan town

SANDAKAN: The first Japanese Cuisine restaurant in the heart of Sandakan town at the Central Business District (CBD) here will officially open its doors to the public for the first time this May 12.

Situated at the ground floor of Harbour Mall Sandakan in Sandakan Harbour Square next to Four Points by Sheraton Sandakan, Zen Japanese Cuisine restaurant promises Japanese food enthusiasts in Sandakan an exciting and new experience in the Japanese culinary art.

The harbour view offers a calm, peaceful and harmonic ambience to all diners. The young troop of chefs in its modern kitchen as well as the sushi bar chefs will certainly give diners the best of skills in churning out fresh, delicious and healthy Japanese foods for the diners' palates.

Zen is the ideal place too for an afternoon tea break where one can enjoy tea or coffee or fruit juices over a few snacks of sushi or even sashimi for the discerning, the restaurant's Managing Partner Thomas Lau Chi Keong said during a press conference on Friday.

"Our service includes free jockey parking for your cars. Just drop your car key to our jockeys at Four Points By Sheraton and your car will be taken care of by them and our 24-hours security service will ensure the safety of your beautiful cars while you and family, and friends enjoying the dinner at Zen," he added.

Lau said diners will be in for a surprise to learn and appreciate the value for money at Zen.

"Sandakan Municipal Council president Datuk James Wong and Ireka Corp Bhd Group Managing Director Lai Voon Hon will be officially opening the restaurant at 9am on May 12," Lau said.

Also present at the press conference was Lau's Special Assistant Lun Yee Tim.

Thomas Lau (5th right) with his staff during the media conference on Friday.