

Sculptures that best describe Sandakan's ecotourism on display

SANDAKAN: An exhibition to display all 61 entries in the search for signature sculpture here is open to the public from today to July 7 at Sandakan Harbour Mall.

According to Ireka senior vice president of project (East Malaysia) Chen Min Sang, the exhibition would display 61 sculptures that were designed and submitted online, or by post or hand during the previous contest.

The Sandakan Sculpture

Competition 2012, which ran from March 1 to April 16, 2012 in search of the signature icon that best captures Sandakan's unique ecotourism, had attracted participants throughout Malaysia.

Attractive prizes of up to RM30,000, including hotel stay at Four Points by Sheraton are given to winners. The winning sculpture will be chosen to be sculpted at the Piazza of Harbour Mall Sandakan.

Meanwhile, the unveiling of the sculpture, in conjunction with Sabah's 50th anniversary, will officially be made by Sandakan Municipal Council president Datuk Ir. James Wong.

The five-level Harbour Mall Sandakan, is the first harbour shopping mall situated in the heart of Sandakan town, offering 200,000 square feet of prime spaces for retailers, apart from being a new shopping haven for locals and tourists.
