

A GO-GO TO ALOFT

THE debut of the modern Aloft Kuala Lumpur Sentral offers a refreshing change for travellers bored with non-descript hotels. The 482-room hotel owned by Aseana Properties Limited is also the largest Aloft hotel in the world. The brand Aloft is the babysister of The Starwood Group's famous W Hotels, with similar trendsetting elements. The trendy hotel uses a funky mix of industrial elements. Tired travellers can enjoy guestrooms with spacious 11-foot-high ceilings, and the comfortable Aloft signature bed. Giving a local touch to the rooms are quirky cartoons drawn by local artist Antares, while colourful elephant paintings by Yusuf Gajah line the hotel corridors. The vibe here is casual, as you relax at the re:mix lounge with a game of pool, or grab a cocktail at w xyz bar at the lobby level. Travelers-on-the-go can pick up a snack at the 24-hour re:fuel that stocks sandwiches, salads, and local items. For more substantial meals, head towards Nook, that serves Malaysian food such as Sarawak laksa and nasi lemak, amid Western items. For a bird-eye view of Kuala Lumpur, chill out at rooftop Mai bar or dive into the pool, the highest at 30 floors, among the Aloft hotels.

The hotel also offers around 17,233 square feet of meeting space that includes a state-of-the-art ballroom, which recently hosted the Mercedes-Benz Stylo Fashion Grand Prix 2013.
